

Do not allow any further media consolidation of TV stations and newspapers. Many different viewpoints must be made available to our citizens and voters in order to maintain a successful democracy.